

NEW SENCO TRAINING

Tracey Cook

Session 3

11 February 2021

- ▶ Due to the absence of parental consent any discussions surrounding pupils will be anonymous.
- ▶ Discussions during the training will be confidential and/or anonymous. Possible exceptions to this may be the sharing of good practice and the general training content.
- ▶ Safeguarding – follow the protocols
- ▶ Emails and contact numbers – please let Tracey and/or Cathy know if you would prefer not to share these with the group.
- ▶ We are planning to have some kind of check in within each of these sessions. There will always be the option to pass but if you feel uncomfortable doing this then please speak to Tracey or Cathy via phone or email.
- ▶ Look after yourself – if you need to take 5 minutes then please do so.
- ▶ Use the chat facility throughout – to share ideas, questions etc.

THE RULES!

Introductions

MCS courses – Providing a context for MCS for SENCO's 3rd March, Head teachers 24 Feb, Wider school staff 17 March. All 8-9.30am or 4-5.30pm
<https://cpdschoolstheeducationpeople.org/courses/bookings/default.asp>

Activity – Mad Tea

Thinking through the eyes of the child – John Dexter

Q&A

THE SESSION

1 minute in each room

- ▶ What is going well for me this week is...
- ▶ What inclusion means to me is...
- ▶ What first inspired me in this work is...
- ▶ The one superpower I would love to have is...

www.liberatingstructures.com

BREAK OUT ROOMS ACTIVITY – VIRTUAL VERSION OF MAD TEA!

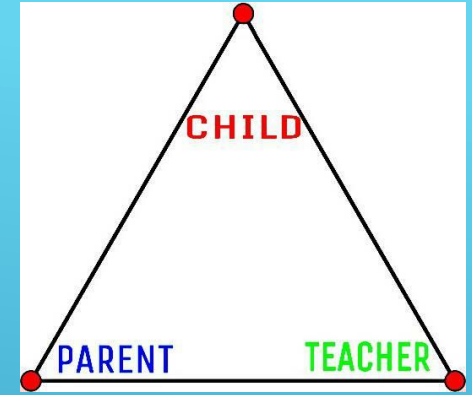

Thinking through the eyes of the child.

BY JOHN DEXTER

Q&A

Next Session

Thursday 25th February 1-3pm

PARENTAL PARTNERSHIP

Please come to the session with some practical ideas/successful strategies to share with the group.

Will also plan in time to address some of the items from the feedback from previous sessions.